4. Schedule of Establishment.- (1) Every religious institution shall have a Schedule of Establishment duly prepared by the Executive Authority of such institution and sanctioned by the Commissioner. The Schedule of Establishment shall contain the details of sanctioned posts, both Ulthurai and Velithurai, in all categories, with details of sanction order issued by the Commissioner, pay and other allowances admissible to such posts. The Executive Authority shall not alter the Schedule without the prior approval of the Commissioner.

(2) Every religious institution shall limit the expenditure on salaries of establishment within the percentage and norms as may be fixed by the Government from time to time.

(3) No new posts shall be created in any religious institution without the prior sanction of the Commissioner.

(4) Every post in a religious institution shall be sanctioned taking into account the income of the religious institution. The expenditure on salaries and establishment shall be met from the income of the concerned religious institution.

5. Employees to profess Hindu religion.- Every employee of a religious institution shall profess Hindu religion and shall cease to hold office as such employee when he ceases to profess that religion.

6. Physical fitness.- (1) Every person appointed to a post in a religious institution shall before entering service, produce a certificate of fitness as prescribed in Annexure - XIII from a Assistant Civil Surgeon.

(2) No person, who is suffering from any contagious or infectious disease, either congenital or supervening, and no person, who is suffering from any mental or physical infirmity which renders him unfit for service, shall be appointed to, or succeed to or hold any office in a religious institution. Any doubt or dispute as to whether a person is qualified under this rule shall be decided by the appointing authority on production of a certificate of physical fitness obtained from a Assistant Civil Surgeon. Any person aggrieved by an order of the appointing authority may prefer an appeal to the Joint/Deputy Commissioner of Religious Institution concerned within one month from the date of receipt of such order.

7. Qualification.-(a) Age.- No person shall be eligible for appointment by direct recruitment to the posts for which there is a provision for direct recruitment unless he has completed eighteen years of age but has not completed thirty-five years of age on the first day of July of the year in which the vacancy is notified.

Provided that no person shall be eligible for appointment by promotion from non-senior grade temple to the Senior Grade Temple if he has completed forty-five years of age on the first day of July of the year in which the vacancy is notified.

(b) Other qualifications.- No person shall be eligible for appointment to the category of posts specified in column (1) of the tabular column in the Annexures I to XI by the methods specified in column (2) thereof unless he possesses the qualifications specified in the corresponding entry in column (3) thereof:

Provided that in cases where this rule prescribes a diploma or a degree or a post-graduate degree as qualification for appointment, then,--

(a) a diploma obtained, after completion of S.S.L.C or Higher Secondary course [10+3 (3 years Diploma)] or [10+2+2 (Lateral Entry)]; or

(b) a degree obtained, after completion of S.S.L.C and Higher Secondary Course (10+2+3 or more); or

(c) a post-graduate degree obtained, after completion of S.S.L.C, Higher Secondary course and a degree (10+2+3+2 or 3) from any University or Institution, recognized by the University Grants Commission shall be recognized as the qualification.

8. Disqualifications.- (1) No person convicted and sentenced to imprisonment by a Criminal Court for an offence involving moral turpitude or bound over for keeping the peace or for good behavior shall be appointed to any post.

(3) No person, who has been removed or dismissed from service in any religious institution, local authority, statutory body or Government, shall be employed to any post in a religious institution.

(4) No person, who is in arrears of any kind due by him to any religious institution or endowment, shall be employed to any post in a religious institution.

(5) No person, who has acted adversely to the interest of any religious institution, shall be employed to any post in a religious institution.

9. Filling up of vacancies by direct recruitment.- (1) Whenever a vacancy arises in an entry level post included in the Schedule of Establishment of a religious institution, the said post shall be filled by direct recruitment in accordance with the proportion specified in that Establishment.

Provided that while filling the vacancies by direct recruitment, every third vacancy arising in the entry level posts in the Schedule of Establishment of Senior Grade Temples shall be filled from the qualified employees of non-senior grade temples and the cycle for such appointment shall be as follows:-

from non-senior grade temples -----1

Provided further that if no sufficient number of qualified and suitable employees of non-senior grade temples are available for entry level posts of Senior Grade Temples then those vacancies shall be filled up by the other method prescribed (i.e) from the open market.

(2) The Executive Authority shall prepare a list of vacant posts and notify the number of vacancies and take action for publication of notices calling for applications as detailed below:-

(a) The Executive Authority shall publish a notice containing the details of the posts proposed to be filled up, namely the number of vacancies, the required qualifications, the scale of pay and such other details as may be necessary, calling for applications for the post, giving minimum of one month time, for submission of applications.

(b) Such notice calling for applications shall be published on the Notice Board of the religious institution / official websites of the religious institution and the department /Office of the Village Administrative Officer/Panchayat Board/ Municipality/Corporation, where the religious institution is situated, as the case may be, and in neighbouring temples. Where the religious institution is included in the list published under section 46(iii) of the Act, notice shall also be published in one leading Tamil Daily News Paper having wide circulation in the area where the religious institution is situated.

(c) On receipt of applications, the Executive Authority shall call for an interview of the eligible candidates. Notice of the date, time and place of interview shall be intimated to the candidates, in writing. The interview will be conducted by a Committee constituted by the Executive Authority for this purpose.

(d) The Committee for interviewing the candidates shall consist of - (1) the Chairman of the Board of Trustees; or Hereditary Trustee; or Trustee, if there is only one trustee; or the Fit Person; or where the Executive Officer himself is the Fit Person, the Division Inspector of Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Department or where the Inspector is the Fit Person, another Division Inspector/Executive Officer of Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Department; (2) the Executive Officer of the religious institution concerned or Division Inspector of Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Department where there is no Executive Officer; (3) Two experts in the concerned subject; (4) in the case of Senior Grade Temples a person nominated by the Commissioner, in all other cases an official nominated by the Joint Commissioner of the region where the religious institution is situated.

(b) The selection shall be made with reference to the rank obtained in the list of approved candidates drawn by the appointing authority.

(c) The Appointing Authority shall pass resolution for the appointment of eligible candidates and issue appointment orders.

(d) Once the appointment order is issued the Executive Authority shall submit report with all details along with the resolution and appointment orders to the Commissioner through the concerned Assistant Commissioner or the Joint Commissioner, as the case may be.

10. Pay and Allowances of employees.- (1) The pay and allowances of employees of religious institution shall be in accordance with the schedule of establishment sanctioned by the Commissioner from time to time.

(2) Travelling allowance and daily allowance payable for the journeys performed by the employees shall be in accordance with the Tamil Nadu Travelling Allowance Rules for the time being in force. The Executive Officer and in the absence of any such officer, the trustee or the Chairman of Board of Trustees, as the case may be, shall be the controlling, countersigning and disbursing authority in respect of their travelling allowance bills.

11. Seniority.- The seniority of a person shall, unless he has been reduced to a lower rank as a punishment, be determined by the date on which he is appointed to the category. Whenever more than one vacancy is filled up, the appointing authority shall fix the order of placement based on the rank obtained by them in the list of approved candidates drawn up by the appointing authority. If other things being equal their seniority shall be decided with reference to their age, the elder shall be placed at the top.

12. Counting of service in a different institution.- (1) Each religious institution shall be a separate unit for the purpose of recruitment, seniority and promotion.

(2) Services rendered in one institution shall count for another institution for the purpose of pension.

13. Promotion.- (i) Number of posts which have to be filled up by promotion from the feeder categories within the religious institution shall be worked out by the religious institution and a panel of qualified persons for each post shall be prepared every year as per the seniority in the feeder category.

(ii) No person shall be eligible for promotion unless he has satisfactorily completed his probation.

(iii) If the feeder category for a post is not available in the institution or the person in the feeder category is not suitable for the promotional post, then that vacancy shall be filled up by the employees of other religious institutions by notifying those vacancies and calling for applications from other religious institutions.

14. Preparation of Panel.- (1) No employee is eligible for drawal / inclusion in the panel for promotion and appointment by promotion if,-

- (a) disciplinary action is pending or contemplated against him; or
- (b) criminal case is pending or contemplated against him; or
- (c) vigilance case is pending or contemplated against him; or
- (d) he is convicted in a Criminal case; or
- (e) he is undergoing any punishment.

(2) The crucial date for preparation of such panel shall be the 1st July of every year. The appointing authority shall take action for preparation of the panel three months prior to the crucial date taking into account the number of vacancies due to arise in the particular year and get such estimate of vacancies approved by the Assistant Commissioner in respect of religious institutions not included in the list published under section 46 of the Act; and by the Regional Joint Commissioner concerned in respect of religious institutions included in the list published under section 46(i) and 46(ii); by the Commissioner or the officer nominated by the Commissioner in respect of religious institutions included in the list published under section 46(iii) of the Act. On approval by the authorities, it shall be published on the Notice Board of the religious institution concerned and thereafter promotions shall be made based on such panel.

15. Probation.- (1) Every person appointed to a post by direct recruitment shall, from the date on which he joins duty, be on probation for a total period of two years on duty within a continuous period of three years.

Explanation.— For the purpose of calculating the period of probation of a probationer, complete calendar months, irrespective of the number of days in each month, shall first be calculated and then the odd number of days calculated subsequently. Period of leave, other than casual leave, if any, taken during the period of probation shall be excluded while calculating the period of probation.

(2) The appointing authority may extend the period of probation of any probationer, up to five years, to enable him to pass the prescribed tests as per Annexure - XII.

(3) If the appointing authority decides that a probationer is suitable for declaration of probation then, he shall issue an order declaring the probationer to have satisfactorily completed the period of probation. If no such order is issued within six months from the date on which he is eligible for such declaration the probationer shall be deemed to have satisfactorily completed his probation on the date of expiry of the prescribed or extended period of probation. A formal order declaring the completion of probation shall, however, be issued by the appointing authority.

(4) Probation cannot be declared if charges are pending and probation shall be declared by the appointing authority within one month after final orders are passed on the charges.

(5) If the appointing authority decides that a probationer is not suitable for such post or if a probationer has not passed the test as prescribed within the period of probation, it shall, unless the period of probation is extended, by an order, discharge him from the service after giving him a reasonable opportunity for showing cause against the action to be taken against him.

(6) The decision of the appointing authority that the probationer is not suitable for service may also be based on his work and conduct till the date of decision inclusive of the period subsequent to the prescribed or extended period of probation.

16. Drawal of Increment.- (1) A probationer shall be allowed to draw his first increment in the time scale of pay, in the normal course, and his second increment shall be drawn only from the date on which he is declared to have completed his probation.

(2) In cases where probation is extended, a condition shall, unless there are special reason to the contrary, be attached to the order of extension of probation that the probationer's increment shall be stopped until he is declared to have satisfactorily completed his probation. Such stoppage of increment shall not be treated as a penalty, but only as a condition of extension of probation and shall not have the effect of postponing future increments after he has passed the prescribed tests or examinations or after he is declared to have satisfactorily completed his probation.

(3) The date of increment shall be advanced to the first day of each quarter such as 1st January, 1st April, 1st July and 1st October in each year, irrespective of the dates of accrual in the course of a year.

17. Transfers and postings.- (1) The employees of religious institutions may be transferred to the entry level post, from one religious institution to another religious institution having Executive Officer of the same grade based on the mutual consent of the Executive Authorities of the religious institutions, by considering the objections of employees of the said religious institutions and subject to approval by the Commissioner:

Provided that the scale of pay and designation of the post are the same in both the religious institutions.

(2) An employee transferred from one religious institution to another religious institution is entitled for joining time as admissible to Government Servants.

(3) No employee shall be considered for transfer during the period of probation if,

- (i) disciplinary action is pending or contemplated against him.
- (ii) criminal case is pending or contemplated against him.
- (iii) vigilance case is pending or contemplated against him.
- (iv) he is undergoing any punishment.

18. Appointment on Compassionate grounds.- The dependant of the deceased employee who dies in harness leaving his family in indigent circumstances is eligible for appointment on compassionate grounds in the entry level post like Junior Assistant, Clerk and other lower post alone subject to the following conditions:

(i) No person shall be eligible for appointment on compassionate grounds unless he has completed 18 years of age on the date of submission of application to the appointing authority within the period of 3 years from the date of death of the employee. The upper age limit for appointment shall be thirty five years in respect of sons/daughters and fifty years in the case of widower/widow;

Explanation.— The expression 'sons and daughters' in this section shall includes a widowed daughter, divorced daughter, or a married daughter deserted by her husband and living with the family of the deceased Government employee, a legally adopted son or a legally adopted daughter, whose adoption was made during the life time of the deceased employee.

(ii) If there is already any earning member in the family, the other dependants of the deceased employees are not eligible for appointment on compassionate grounds;

(iii) The candidate should possess all the prescribed qualifications for the post concerned;

(iv) The dependants of the employees appointed on regular scales of pay alone are eligible for appointment on compassionate grounds;

(v) A certificate from the Tahsildar regarding the indigency of the family shall be produced along with the application;

(vi) The appointment on compassionate grounds shall be made only against the actual vacancies.

19. Leave.- (1) Casual Leave.- (a) An employee of a religious institution shall be eligible for casual leave of twelve days in a calendar year. Casual leave may be combined with Sundays, or other Government holidays.

Provided that the resulting period of absence from duty does not exceed ten days. If the eleventh and subsequent days are incidentally declared as holidays on account of natural calamities, leave declared by the Government etc., the employee who is on casual leave may avail himself of those days also even though the period of absence exceeds ten days.

(b) Casual leave may be granted for half-a-day at a time on application. In such cases, the half-a-day period should be either three hours from the commencement or before the closure of office hours.

(c) An employee of a religious institution who is on probation may be granted one day casual leave for every completed month of service and such leave may be combined with holidays, subject to the maximum prescribed above.

(d) Casual leave cannot be taken in combination with Earned leave or Medical leave or Maternity leave or Extraordinary leave without allowances (Leave on loss of pay).

(e) A register of casual leave should be maintained in every religious institution.

(f) Leave may be granted to the Ulthurai employees on their providing proper substitutes with undertaking to take responsibility of loss or damage caused due to negligence of his substitute, to the satisfaction of the executive authority.

(b) The leave at the credit of a regular employee, at the close of the previous half-year shall be carried forward to the next half year, subject to the condition that the leave so carried forward plus the credit due for the half year does not exceed the maximum limit of 240 days.

Provided that if the earned leave at the credit of a regular employee as on the last day of December or June is 240 days or less but more than 225 days, the advance credit of 15 days earned leave on the first day of January or July to be afforded shall, instead of being credited in the leave account, be kept separately and first adjusted against the earned leave that the regular employee takes or surrenders during that half year and the balance if any, shall be credited to the leave account at the close of the half year, subject to the condition that the balance of such earned leave plus leave already at credit does not exceed the maximum limit of 240 days.

Provided further that the earned leave shall be credited to the leave account of a regular employee, at the rate of 2½ days for each completed calendar month of service which he is likely to render in a half-year of the calendar year in which he is appointed.

Provided also that the earned leave shall be credited to the leave account of a regular employee, who is due to retire or resign from the service or dies while in service, at the rate of 2½ days per completed calendar month upto the date of retirement or resignation or death, as the case may be.

Provided also that the earned leave so credited to the leave account of a regular employee, who is due to retire or dies while in service, shall be eligible to encash maximum of 210 days at the time of retirement or death, as the case may be.

Provided also that if a regular employee has availed of extra-ordinary leave (with or without Medical Certificate) or some period of absence has been treated as dies-non in a half-year, the credit to be afforded to his leave account at the commencement of the next half-year shall be reduced by one-tenth of the period of such leave or dies-non, subject to a maximum of 15 days.

In the case of a employee under probation, earned leave shall be credited at the rate of 2½ days for every two completed calendar months of service which he is likely to render in a half year of the calendar year subject to a maximum of thirty days.

*Explanation:-*For the purpose of crediting earned leave.-

(i) fractions of a day shall be rounded off to the nearest day;

(ii) if an employee is on leave on the last day of any particular half of a calendar year, earned leave shall be credited on the first of the succeeding half-year, provided that the authority competent to grant leave has reason to believe that the employee will return to duty on the expiry of leave;

Provided that leave may be granted, to the Ulthurai employees on their providing proper substitutes with undertaking to take responsibility of loss or damage caused due to negligence of his substitute, to the satisfaction of the executive authority.

(3) Leave on medical certificate.-(a) Leave on medical certificate may be granted to a regular employee for 240 days in all, only on production of a certificate from a registered medical practitioner for a period not exceeding the period of leave recommended in the certificate with reference to the period of service specified in column (1) of the Table below subject to the restriction of the period of leave specified in the corresponding entry in column (2) thereof.-
