STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act, 1937 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1937) provides for various punishments for the offences such as import, export, transport, possession, manufacture, bottling and consumption of liquor, in violation of the provisions of the said Act and the rules made thereunder. It is considered that the punishments provided in the said Act for some of the heinous crimes, especially for the offences of manufacture, possession and selling of illicit liquor, which are injurious to the human life, are not sufficient enough to eliminate such crimes and to deter the offenders habitually indulging in such crimes.

2. It is expedient to completely eradicate the menace of illicit liquor from the State of Tamil Nadu. In order to achieve the above objective, the punishments provided under the said Act for the offences relating to prohibited liquors such as denatured spirits and methanol, which are often admixed with illicit liquor, have to be substantially increased to have a strong deterrent effect on the bootleggers who are habitually engaged in the manufacture, possession and sale of illicit liquors which often results in loss of precious human life.

3. The Government have therefore decided to substantially enhance the term of imprisonment and quantum of fine provided for commission of various offences under sections 4,5,6,7 and 11 of the said Act. It is also proposed to confiscate all the movable properties used in the commission of such offences and also to seal the unlicensed places used for consumption of liquor. It is also proposed that the aforesaid heinous offences are to be made non-compoundable. Apart from that, it is also proposed to insert section 52-AA in the said Act so as to empower the Executive Magistrate to issue an order requiring those persons who are habitually committing the aforesaid offences to execute a bond with sureties for substantial amount in order to deter such persons from committing such offences in future. It is also proposed to amend section 52-E, of the said Act providing for making of an application by the Prohibition Officer or the Investigating Officer before the Jurisdictional Court for the removal of a person, who was convicted of certain offences under the said Act, from an area.

4. The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision.
